DETAILED ACTION

Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

1. A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on 5/14/04 has been entered.

Response to Amendment

2. The amendment received on 5/14/04 has been entered. Claim 4 remains pending.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. Claim 4 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Ichihara (6,133,052) in view of Watanabe et al. ("Telecentric Optics for Focus Analysis").

Regarding claim 4, Ichihara discloses a shaping step of shaping the top portions of the bumps into a planar shape by coining such that the top portions of all of the bumps of the inspection object are on the same plane (Col. 5, lines 16-63); an illumination step of illuminating the top portions with light vertical thereto through an optical system (Col. 5, lines 64-67, Col. 6, lines 1-34; Figure 1), an observation step of observing the images of the top portions in a predetermined range of the inspection object (Col. 6, lines 4-14), a processing step of analyzing the shapes of the bumps on the basis of the images of the top portion by the observation portion (Col. 7, lines 6-16), and the processor step including analyzing stage of analyzing the areas of the planar top portion of each of the bumps Figs. 4A-4E (Col. 7, lines 16-20), and judging stage of judging whether or not the area of the top portion falls within a predetermined range (Col. 7, lines 35-43). Ichihara discloses an illumination device and an observation optical system, but does not appear to recognize illuminating with a parallel pencil of light vertical thereto through a telecentric optical system. Watanabe discloses using a telecentric optical system (Sect. 1-2) with a vertical parallel pencil of light (Figure 2) whereby the optical axis is in conformity with that of illumination optical system (Sect. 2.2). Ichihara and Watanabe are combinable because they from the same field of endeavor of machine vision. At the time of the invention, it would have been obvious to a person of ordinary skill in the art to have modified the optical system disclosed by Ichihara to include a telecentric optical system. The motivation for doing so would have been because it is well known in the art and provides a solution to the problem of magnification variation due to change in focus setting (Sect 1; Sect. 6). Therefore, it would have been obvious to combine Ichihara with Watanabe to obtain the invention as specified in claim 4.

Response to Arguments

5. Applicant's arguments with respect to claim 4 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground of rejection.
